

LIABILITY STATEMENT

The participant acknowledges that they are entering the competition at their own risk. The registrant declares that their health condition meets the requirements for participating in the event and accepts that the event organizers cannot be held liable for any health damage or losses incurred in connection with the competition. The organizers do not provide insurance for participants; if insurance is required, it must be arranged individually outside of the event.

The data submitted during registration is accurate, and the participant consents to its storage and use for event purposes. The participant, being fully aware of their legal responsibility, confirms that the information provided during registration is true.

Participants must remain on the designated race course. The participant acknowledges that the race route may include road surface defects and irregularities, requiring heightened attention while on the course. The organizers cannot be held liable for accidents caused by such defects.

Material prizes won during the event can only be collected in person during the award ceremony. Cash prizes will be transferred to the winners via bank transfer.

The participant agrees that images, audio, and video recordings taken of them during the event may be used without further approval and that the organizers may freely use them in promotional and other communication materials (e.g., billboards, flyers) without any entitlement to additional compensation.

The organizers reserve the right to change the route and schedule of the event.
